12/19/11: Great Video(s) on how different advisors get paid

For those of you with short attention spans for this stuff (it can get pretty dry sometimes), I highly recommend taking 5 minutes to watch these short (and slightly amusing) videos by Tim Maurer on how various types of advisors get paid and the inherent conflicts of interest in each method. Well done, Tim. (FYI: Bell Tower Advisors is a fee-only advisor.)
